

FRIDAY NEWCHURCH

24th November 2017

MUSIC AMBASSADOR QUALITY MARK

Mrs Narraway and Mrs Mowbray had the honour of escorting four of our very talented musicians to Warrington Town Hall to receive our Music Ambassador Quality Mark which recognises the outstanding music provision at Newchurch. We are very fortunate to have a governing body who recognise the importance of the arts and an exceptional music lead in Mrs Mowbray who has equipped the staff with the confidence to deliver such a rich curriculum.

Steffan Jones: I felt proud to receive the award.

Elle Holmes: I really happy we got the award and loved listening to the pianist.

Sean Benson: I'm happy to meet the mayor.

Grace Campbell: I was happy to be chosen to receive the award on behalf of Newchurch.

GLOBAL ANTI-BULLYING MESSAGE

We can certainly say that our anti-bullying message spread far and wide! We have had numerous replies from all over the world.

One email was received from Atherton, Australia. The recipient of the letter stated that he was bullied at military boarding school and as a result joined the police force to combat bullying and hate crimes against the vulnerable in society.

We received an email from Cara and Xander Steedman's grandparents in Ireland, and Joshua and Jonah Bloxham's grandparent in Dhaka Bangladesh.

Other destinations of our letters have been: Melbourne, Queensland, Soweto in South Africa, California, Rouen in Normandy, France, Cornwall, Leicester, Barcelona and Oslo, Norway. Many thanks to all those children and families who supported us in sharing our zero tolerance towards anti-bullying and hate crimes.

YOGA DAY

Year 2 were treated to a yoga session on Wednesday morning. Miss Lomax took them on a journey through the jungle where they met lots of different animals, including monkeys, lions, giraffes and elephants and using different yoga positions the children acted out their journey. It was a great experience for the whole class and gave a vibrant yet calming start to their morning.

Lewis Arnold-Kew: I enjoyed doing the breathing exercises and I liked the part with the lion.

Phoebe Blackmore: I liked the adventure that we went on with the animals.

TENNIS TASTER

On Wednesday a tennis coach from Live Wire came to visit Reception, Year 1 and Year 2. Each class took part in a tennis skills session which involved a range of fun activities to get the children moving and developing their bat and ball skills. The children seemed to really enjoy themselves and many were keen to attend further sessions taking place at the High School.

Carlota Haland Y1: I liked playing the game over the net.

Isabelle Lowe Y1: I liked it when we took the ball for a walk.

William Savage Y1: I liked playing the jail game. When you bat the ball, if you don't get it over the net, you're in jail! You have to catch the ball to get out of jail.

Mrs Worthington: I was very proud of the way Year 1 listened to the coach and followed instructions. They were so polite, and the coach was really impressed with their behaviour.
