Year Group	Autumn	Spring	Summer
ELG
EYFS	Past and Present: - Talk about the lives of the people around them and their roles in society; - Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class; - Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling
	Have jobs always been the same? 	Are vehicles from the past the same as today? 	Where did the kings and queens of the past and present live?
National Curriculum KS1
Pupils should develop an awareness of the past, using common words and phrases relating to the passing of time. They should know where the people and events they study fit within a chronological framework and identify similarities and differences between ways of life in different periods. They should use a wide vocabulary of everyday historical terms. They should ask and answer questions, choosing and using parts of stories and other sources to show that they know and understand key features of events. They should understand some of the ways in which we find out about the past and identify different ways in which it is represented. In planning to ensure the progression described above through teaching about the people, events and changes outlined below, teachers are often introducing pupils to historical periods that they will study more fully at key stages 2 and 3. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pupils should be taught about:</li> <li>Changes within living memory. Where appropriate, these should be used to reveal aspects of change in national life</li> <li>Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally [for example, the Great Fire of London, the first aeroplane flight or events</li> </ul>
